

Development Library

A cost-effective resource to enable development planning in your organization

Designed for business people, the library provides cost-effective, easy-access to development resources appropriate for executives, managers and professionals.

- Comprehensive and easy to use – the library offers employees hundreds of development activities for a wide-range of competencies
- Development resources include readings, seminars and on-the-job assignments
- The library is highly intuitive – each resource is fully described to help employees select those activities that best meet their needs

The library is fully customizable:

- ✓ Development resources can be organized by company specific competencies
- ✓ Technical competencies and internal workshops can be added
- ✓ The library can be up-loaded into your existing performance management, learning management or succession planning software

Sample Entries from the Development Library

Know-How: The 8 Skills That Separate People Who Perform from Those Who Don't, by Ram Charan, 304 pages, 2007, Crown Business.

Ram Charan's insight into the real content of leadership provides you with the eight fundamental skills needed for success in the twenty-first century....

Books are highly rated, written by authorities in their respective fields

Creating a Culture of Innovation

Northwestern University (Kellogg School of Management)
Length: 1 day. Cost: $2,500.

Overview:

This one-day seminar is designed exclusively for senior executives who can initiate and drive innovation strategies in their organizations..

For additional information contact Kellogg...

Seminars are offered at various price points by highly respected institutions across the U.S., Canada and Europe

To learn more, please contact us:

Nardoni Strategic Solutions
7581 Monte Verde Lane
West Palm Beach, FL 33412

Office: (561) 626-9713
Cell: (908) 380-6831
E-mail: getinfo@nardoni.com